

Press Release

IPCC Welcomes New and Re-appointed Members

(HONG KONG – 30 December 2020) On behalf of the Independent Police Complaints Council (IPCC), Dr Anthony Francis NEOH, Council Chairman, welcomes the newly appointed Vice-Chairmen Hon Jimmy NG Wing-ka and Hon CHAN Chun-ying, and the newly appointed Members Miss Mabel Chan Mei-bo, Dr Daniel Chan Ching-yan and Mr Randy Yu Hon-kwan, for a term of two years with effect from 1 January 2021. The IPCC also welcomes the reappointment of Hon Frankie YICK Chi-ming as Vice-Chairman, and Ms Ann AU Chor-kwan, Mr Alex CHU Wing-yiu, Mr Douglas LAM Tak-yip, SC, Miss Sylvia LEE Hiu-wah, Dr David LEE Ka-yan, Ms Melissa Kaye PANG, Prof Martin WONG Chi-sang, Mr Johnny YU Wah-yung, Mr LEE Man-bun and Ms Jane Curzon LO as Members for a further two-year term on 1 January 2021.

The Council Chairman Dr NEOH also expressed sincere gratitude to Vice Chairmen Hon Christopher CHEUNG Wah-fung and Hon Tony TSE Wai-chuen, and Members Dr Eric CHENG Kam-chung, Mr Richard HO Kam-wing, Mr Herman HUI Chung-shing, Ir Edgar KWAN Chi-ping, as well as Ms Shalini SUJANANI, who will leave the IPCC by the end of their term on 31 December 2020 for their support and contribution. “During their tenure, they served as Chairmen and Members of relevant sub-committees/sub-group and strived to assist the Council in performing its statutory functions. With their active participation and the concerted effort of all Members, the IPCC successfully completed the mammoth Thematic Study on Public Order Events arising from the Fugitive Offenders Bill and the Police Actions in Response this year, and put forward recommendations for the Force’s future improvement.”

Dr NEOH said, “In the light of rising public expectation and changing socio-political environment, the IPCC will continue to face numerous challenges ahead. I am confident that the distinguished background and substantial experience possessed by the newly appointed and incumbent Members will enable IPCC to effectively perform its statutory functions and meet upcoming challenges. Meanwhile, the Council will continue to uphold the core values of independence, impartiality and integrity and strive to enhance the service quality of the Police Force in serving our community. I also wish our outgoing Members every success in their endeavours, and look forward to their continued support for the IPCC.”

###