IPCC appoints new Secretary-General

(HONG KONG – 29 October 2021) The Independent Police Complaints Council (IPCC) announced today the appointment of Mr Daniel MUI Tat-ming as the Secretary-General of the IPCC, with effect from 1 November 2021, for a term of three years.

Ms Priscilla WONG Pui-sze, SBS, JP, Chairman of the IPCC said, “Mr Daniel MUI Tat-ming joined the IPCC in 2012 as the Deputy Secretary-General (Operations) and has acted as the Secretary-General since February 2021. He has served the IPCC for nearly 10 years and has extensive experience in vetting complaint cases as well as knowledge of law enforcement. Mr MUI has also been outstanding in team management and leadership. The IPCC believes that Mr MUI will continue to lead the Secretariat to assist the Council in monitoring the handling and investigation of complaint cases by Complaints Against Police Office, promoting the work of the IPCC, as well as upholding the IPCC’s core values of independence, impartiality and integrity in discharging its statutory duties to maintain a fair police complaints system.”
